

6th grade SUMMER READING 2019 (Due 8/16/19)

Summer reading is an opportunity to increase your reading skills! This summer , each student will read Ablaze, Stories of Daring Teen Saints , as well as a minimum of 2 other AR chapter books.

Ablaze Can be found on Amazon or EBay starting at $5.25. It is important that each student purchase their own copy as there are places to write in the book which will be utilized for the summer reading assignment.

To know if a chapter book is an AR Book, go to arbookfind.com. Here you can see the BL(book level)., and how many points it is worth. Keep track of these books on your reading log and choose one to do a report on. Books can be tested on at school August 19th and points will go towards AR grade.

ELA Projects, Mrs. Sisneros

1. Ablaze- Choose one of the saints to create a poster about. This manilla folder (that you just wrote your name and Summer Reading Assignment on) will be your poster board. If ,by chance, it gets lost or damaged, please create one from another folder, or piece of posterboard, cut to approximately the same size.(11.5"x16")

- a. Poster Requirements:

- i. Poster aligned vertically (up and down)
- ii. Name of Saint (Center top)
- iii. Sketch of Saint (Center)
- iv. 3 Character traits or "Virtues". These will be placed around sketch and will include a quote from the book , which exemplifies the trait, as well as a page reference,

For example , if I were doing a poster on Maria , I could say one of her traits is: Hardworking. Next to her picture on the poster I would say:

Hardworking; "Maria took Assunta's place taking care of the household duties of cleaning, cooking, sewing, and generally caring for the needs of the other five children." (page 107)

- v. Prayer or Memory Verse, located at end of chapter (Center bottom)

Mrs. Behnke

Summer is a great time to explore and enliven our faith. The book, Ablaze, Stories of Daring Teen Saints, has stories of 8 teen Saints, as well as some very interesting Additional Materials at the end of the book (Yes, you have to read the Additional Materials :)) As you are reading, you will encounter questions (3 or 4 questions for each saint). My assignment for you is to think about these questions and write a response to at least 2 of them in the space provided at the end of each chapter. Turn in your book to me on the first day of school .
